

Pumpkins

PM50-10 - Musquee de Provence Pumpkin Seeds

125 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Musquee de Provence Pumpkin. The plant produces good yields of 10 lb orange pumpkins. It has orange flesh that is very sweet and flavorful. This variety keeps well throughout the winter. This pumpkin is used by chefs around the world and can be found on menus of the best restaurants. Also known as Muscat de Provence Pumpkins. An excellent choice for home gardens and specialty market growers. An heirloom pumpkin from France.

PM55-10 - Naples Long Pumpkin Seeds

125 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Naples Long Pumpkin. The plant produces excellent yields of large 25 lb peanut shaped deep green pumpkins. It turns tan when in storage. Pumpkins have bright orange flesh that is very rich and sweet in flavor. An excellent choice for home gardens. A rare variety from Italy.

PM66-10 - Turkeyneck Pumpkin Seeds

95 days. Cucurbita moschata. (F1) Turkeyneck Pumpkin. The plant produces high yields of large 10 lb delicious tan color neck pumpkins. The rich orange flesh is very sweet with a butternut flavor. An excellent choice for home gardens. A rare variety from the USA. Disease Resistant: PM, ZMV.

PM52-10 - Yellow of Paris Pumpkin Seeds

80 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Yellow of Paris Pumpkin. The plant produces good yields of very large yellow pumpkins. It can grow up to 100 lbs. It is very sweet and flavorful. This pumpkin is very popular in Paris. This pumpkin is primarily used for making pies, soups, or baked. It is known for its delicious tender flavor when cooked. Also known as Jaune Gros De Paris. An excellent choice for home gardens. A variety from France.

