

ReimerSeeds.com Electronic Catalog
Category: Leeks

LK1-100 - American Flag Leeks

95 days. Allium ampeloprasum. Plant produces 10" long tasty leeks. Superior quality and flavor. Used in soups, stews, and salads. One of the favorite leek varieties grown by home gardeners. Plant Height: 10" tall. pk/100

LK2-100 - King Richard Leeks

79 days. Allium ampeloprasum. A very early variety that produces high quality tasty leeks. Flavor is mild. Excellent in soups, stews, and salads. pk/100

Sunlight: Full Sun

LK3-100 - Giant Musselburg Leeks

100 days. Allium ampeloprasum. Plant produces high quality yields of giant size leeks. This variety is pure white and is very sweet and tender. Used in soups, stews, and salads. pk/100

LK4-100 - Blue Solaize Leeks

100 days. Allium ampeloprasum. Plant produces high quality yields of very large blue colored leeks. It will turn violet during cold temperatures. A cold resistant variety that holds well over the winter. Used in soups, stews, and salads. An heirloom variety from France. pk/100

LK6-100 - Carantan Leeks

95 days. Allium ampeloprasum. Plant produces heavy yields of leeks. The plant has dark green leaves and a white tender stalks. It has a mild flavor. Used in soups, stews, and salads. Plant for fall or winter harvest. An 1885 heirloom variety from Europe. pk/100

LK5-100 - Prizetaker Leeks

110 days. Allium ampeloprasum. Plant produces high quality and very tall leeks. The stalks are pure white and retains it flavor even with its extremely large size. A cold resistant variety that holds well over the winter. Used in soups, stews, and salads. Also known as The Lyon Leek. An heirloom variety from England. Plant Height: 36" tall. pk/100

