

Squash - Summer

SQ56-10 - Ambassador Squash

51 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces high yields of medium dark green squash. Easy to pick. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ55-10 - Aristocrat Squash

1973 All-America Selections Winner!

53 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces good yields of 8" long dark green zucchini squash. One of the best zucchini squash varieties on the market. It is very smooth and slender. Easy to pick. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ66-20 - Benning's Green Tint Squash

63 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Bush type plant produces high yields of pale green scalloped squash. It is easy to grow and rarely bothered by insects. It has creamy texture and very flavorful. Best when harvested when 3" in diameter. Bush type plant grows only 4 feet and is suitable for small home garden and market growers. A summer squash variety

SQ2-20 - Black Beauty Zucchini Squash

1957 All-America Selections Winner!

60 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Bush type plant produces high yields of straight dark green zucchini squash. The outer surface is very smooth. Best when harvested when squash is 8" long. This is an improved variety over the old Black Zucchini. Bush type plant is suitable for smaller gardens. United States Department of Agriculture, NSL 7370. A summer squash variety.

SQ45-20 - Black Zucchini Squash

75 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of straight smooth dark green zucchini squash. The greenish-white flesh is very flavorful. Best when harvested when 8" long. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ110-20 - Bush Baby Squash

49 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces good yields of small 4" to 6" long baby zucchini squash. This is a true baby squash that are glossy medium dark green with stripes. Excellent choice for home gardens. A summer squash variety.

Limited quantity available. Item will be discontinued once inventory is depleted.

SQ6-10 - Butterstick Squash

52 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Semi-bush plant produces good yields of bright golden yellow straightneck type squash. Use raw in a salad or can be used in soups, stews, and casseroles. Best when harvested at 10" long. Bush type plant suitable for small gardens. A summer squash variety.

SQ46-20 - Caserta Zucchini Squash

1949 All-America Selections Winner!

65 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Bush type plant produces high yields of 16" long grayish-green zucchini squash with dark green stripes. Very flavorful. Excellent choice for home gardens. United States Department of Agriculture, NSL 5231. A summer squash variety.

ELECTRONIC CATALOG

SQ103-20 - Cashflow Squash

47 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Bush type plant produces high yields of 8" long by 2" wide medium green zucchini squash. This exceptional quality squash is best when harvested at 8" long. Great used fresh, freezing, or canned. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety. Disease Resistant: ZYMV.

SQ26-20 - Cocozelle Zucchini Squash

45 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Bush type plant produces good yields of dark green with light green stripes squash. The Italian zucchini is very flavorful and tender. Best when harvested at 12" long or smaller. Excellent for slicing, frying, and steaming. A good freezing and canning variety. Pick often when squash are young to prolong harvest. Excellent choice for home gardens. A variety from Italy. A summer squash variety.

SQ47-20 - Dark Green Zucchini Squash

75 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of dark green zucchini. Excellent sliced, fried, steamed, or baked. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ9-20 - Dixie Squash

41 days. Cucurbita moschata. (F1) Plant produces heavy yields of shiny lemon yellow squash. It has smooth skin, unlike other yellow crookneck varieties. Very flavorful and tender. Great freezing and canning variety. Best when harvested when 6" long. Always a great seller at Farmer's Markets! Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ33-20 - Early Golden Summer Crookneck Squash

42 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Bush type plant produces high yields of buttery yellow squash with a narrow curved neck. Very tender and flavorful. Turns darker yellow as it matures. Excellent fried, steamed, or baked. Best harvested when 8" long. One of the earliest crookneck squash on the market which keeps producing all summer long. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ10-20 - Early Prolific Straightneck Squash

1938 All-America Selections Winner!

48 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of lemon-yellow slightly club shaped squash. This is a quality squash. Best when harvested when 7" long or smaller. Excellent choice for home gardens. United States Department of Agriculture, NSL 5232. A summer squash variety.

SQ16-20 - Early White Bush Scallop Squash

49 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Bush type plant produces good yields of white patty pan squash. It is easy to grow and rarely bothered by insects. Creamy texture and very flavorful. Also known as Patty Pan. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ34-10 - Eight Ball Squash

1999 All-America Selections Winner!

42 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces heavy yields of 4" round summer squash. This zucchini squash has shiny speckled green colors. It produces all season long. This gourmet squash is great for stuffing or grilling. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ11-10 - Festival Squash

100 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Semi-bush plant produces good yields of 2 lb squash that has shades of green, gold, and orange. It has flavorful golden flesh. This gourmet squash is great baked or roasted. This bush type plant is suitable for small gardens. Excellent choice for home gardens and Farmer's Markets. A summer squash variety.

SQ93-20 - Genovese Squash

90 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of yellowish-green squash. Great frying and grilling variety. Excellent choice for home gardens and specialty market growers. A variety from Italy. A summer squash variety.

SQ1-10 - Gold Rush Squash

1980 All-America Selections Winner!

50 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces good yields of 10" long golden yellow zucchini squash. Zucchini lovers should try this variety at least once. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ86-20 - Golden Scallop Squash

68 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Bush type plant produces heavy yields of 3" golden yellow squash. This gourmet squash is tender and delicious with pale green interior. Excellent choice for home gardens. A summer squash variety.

SQ85-20 - Golden Zucchini Squash

55 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Compact bush type plant produces heavy yields of 8" long bright golden yellow zucchini squash. The squash is tender and delicious with creamy white interior. This variety was first introduced in 1973 by W. Atlee Burpee of Philadelphia. Excellent choice for home gardens. A summer squash variety.

SQ25-20 - Grey Zucchini Squash

45 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Bush plant produces high yields of 7" long zucchini. The squash is medium green with silvery speckles and is straight and smooth at young stage. It is firm, mild, and very tasty. Best harvested when 5" to 7" long. A favorite in Southwest of the United States and in Mexico. Heat Tolerant. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

SQ48-20 - Lebanese White Bush Squash

45 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of white squash. This squash is very flavorful. It is widely grown in the Middle East. Excellent choice for home gardens. A summer squash variety from Lebanon.

SQ74-20 - Romanesco Squash

100 days. Cucurbita moschata. Plant produces good yields of squash. The flesh and is very flavorful and sweet. Suitable for home garden and market growers. A summer squash variety from Italy.

SQ92-20 - Rondo de Nice Squash

52 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Bush type plant produces good yields of medium green small round zucchini squash with mottled yellow. Best when harvested when golf ball size. Good freezer variety. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety from Italy.

SQ49-20 - Round Zucchini Squash

45 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of 2 1/2" round grey-green zucchini. It has creamy yellow flesh. Bush type plant suitable for small home gardens. A summer squash variety. United States Department of Agriculture, PI 615105.

SQ94-20 - Striata d'Italia Squash

90 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of squash. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A variety from Italy. A summer squash variety.

SQ32-20 - Table Queen Squash

1939 All-America Selections Winner!

85 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of large 7" deep green acorn shaped squash. The squash has flavorful dark orange flesh. Excellent sliced, fried, or steamed. Stores well. Grows well even in poor soil. Excellent choice for home gardens. A summer squash variety.

SQ40-10 - Tromboncino Zucchini Squash

80 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of 36" long tan zucchini squash. Excellent steamed, grilled, or used fresh in salads. Excellent choice for home gardens. A variety from Italy. A summer squash variety.

SQ50-20 - Vegetable Marrow Squash (White)

85 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of snow white squash. Excellent when topped with spaghetti sauce and cheese. Best when harvested when 8" long. Bush type plant which is suitable for small gardens. A summer squash variety.

SQ51-20 - White Bush Squash

65 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of white squash. Very flavorful. A beautiful gourmet variety that is excellent fried, steamed, or used fresh. Bush type plant is suitable for small home gardens. A summer squash variety.

SQ23-20 - Yellow Crookneck Squash

55 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of bright yellow squash with narrow curved neck. Very tender and flavorful. Excellent fried, steamed, or baked. Best harvested when 6" long. One of the most productive squash which keeps producing all summer long. Always a great seller at Farmer's Markets! Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety. Certified Organic.

SQ116-20 - Zucca De Lungo Verde Squash

55 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces very dark green 8" long cylindrical zucchini squash. Very flavorful. Excellent choice for home gardens and specialty market growers. A variety from Italy. A summer squash variety.

SQ102-20 - Zucchini Elite Squash

55 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces heavy yields of green zucchini squash. This exceptional quality variety is best when harvested 8" long. Great freezing and canning zucchini squash. Always a great seller at Farmer's Markets! Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A summer squash variety.

