

Squash - Winter

SQ101-20 - Argonaut Squash

140 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces good yields extra long 25 lb gold skin butternut squash. The orange flesh is very sweet. This is one of the largest butternut squash! Resistant to many insects and diseases. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ60-20 - Autumn Cup Squash

95 days. Cucurbita maxima. (F1) This semi-bush plant produces high yields of 3 lb dark green buttercup squash. The deep orange is extremely sweet. Excellent storage variety. Excellent choice for home gardens. A winter squash variety.

SQ107-20 - Baby Blue Hubbard Squash

95 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 7 lb blue-gray tear drop shaped squash. It has smooth tasting orange-yellow flesh. It tastes wonderful baked or roasted! Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ108-20 - Baby Green Hubbard Squash

95 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 7 lb green tear drop shaped squash. It has smooth tasting orange-yellow flesh. It tastes wonderful baked or roasted! Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ112-20 - Black Bellota Squash

75 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Semi-bush plant produces good yields of 2 lb black acorn squash. This squash has extremely high quality flesh. It also has a very long shelf life of 6 to 8 months. Excellent choice for home gardens. A winter squash variety. Disease Resistant: PM.

SQ65-10 - Bonbon Squash

2005 All-America Selections Winner!

81 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) This semi-bush plant produces high yields of 4 lb green buttercup squash. The deep creamy orange is extremely sweet, "Sweet as Candy". Great storage variety. Suitable for small gardens as vines spread only 8 ft. A winter squash variety.

SQ3-20 - Burgess Buttercup Squash

90 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces heavy yields of 8" long turban shaped green squash with silvery white stripes. The yellow orange flesh is very sweet and squash grows 3 to 5 lbs. It has extended shelf life and stores well. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ4-10 - Burpee Butterbush Squash

75 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Bush plant produces good yields of 1 to 2 lb butternut squash. The reddish-orange flesh and is very flavorful. Vines are only 20" long making it suitable for small gardens. A winter squash variety.

SQ41-20 - Bush Delicata Squash

80 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces excellent yields of 8" long by 4" wide squash. It has a sweet potato flavor. Stores well for 4 months. Bush type plant is suitable for small gardens. A winter squash variety. Disease Resistant: PM.

SQ29-20 - Chicago Wartyed Hubbard Squash

105 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 15" green skinned squash. The deep orange-yellow flesh is very flavorful. One of the best processing type squash on the market. Perfect for pies and canning. Stores well too. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. United States Department of Agriculture, NSL 5248. A winter squash variety.

SQ43-20 - Cream of the Crop Squash

1990 All-America Selections Winner!

75 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces high yields of 3 lb acorn type squash. The squash has creamy white skin and golden-cream flesh. Stores well. Bush type plant is suitable for small gardens. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ61-10 - Early Butternut Squash

1979 All-America Selections Winner!

85 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces very high yields of yellowish butternut squash. The deep reddish-orange is extremely sweet. Stores well. Excellent choice for home gardens. A winter squash variety.

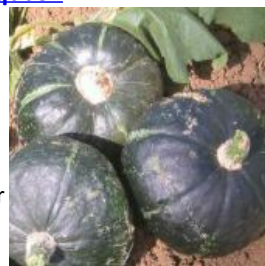

SQ88-20 - Ebony Acorn Squash

100 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of green-black acorn type squash. The yellow flesh is very flavorful. Excellent choice for home gardens and specialty market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ77-20 - Emerald Strain Buttercup Squash

90 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces heavy yields of 5 lb buttercup squash. This squash have a classic turban shape and color. It has sweet yellow-orange flesh. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ104-20 - Gold Nugget Squash

1966 All-America Selections Winner!

85 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Bush type plant produces good yields of pumpkin shaped squash. The orange flesh is very sweet and used as a substitute for sweet potatoes. It is usually steamed or baked and added to soups, stews, curries, and desserts. Excellent choice for home gardens. A winter squash variety.

SQ89-20 - Golden Delicious Hubbard Squash

105 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 12" reddish-orange skinned squash with green blotches. It has sweet orange-yellow flesh. Stores well. Excellent for canning and freezing. Developed for making baby food. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

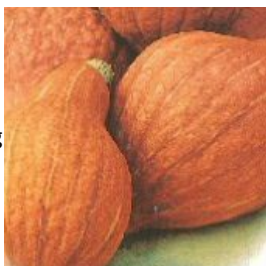

ELECTRONIC CATALOG

SQ75-20 - Golden Hubbard Squash

105 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 10 lb orange squash with tan stripes. Its golden colored flesh is very sweet. Great for making quality pies. Also perfect for canning. Stores well. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

PM22-10 - Green Striped Cushaw Pumpkins

115 days. Cucurbita argyrosperma. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 20" long with curved neck pumpkin. The skin is white with green stripes. It has thick sweet yellow flesh. Sometimes referred as a winter squash. Excellent choice for home gardens. United States Department of Agriculture, PI 512128.

SQ109-20 - Heart of Gold Squash

90 days. Cucurbita maxima. (F1) Semi-bush type plant produces good yields of 3 lb creamy color squash with green mottled striping. This gourmet dumpling shaped squash has very flavorful orange flesh. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ117-20 - Honey Boat Squash

105 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces excellent yields of high quality 8" long by 3" wide Delicata squash. This squash has tan skin with green stripes. On of the sweetest squash varieties in existence. The flavor is rich and reminiscent of sweet potatoes. Stores well for months. Developed by Dr. James Baggett, Oregon State University. Bush type plant is suitable for small gardens. A winter squash variety. Certified Organic.

SQ14-20 - Jumbo Pink Banana Squash

105 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 30" long banana shaped pinkish color squash. This unique squash has delicious yellow-orange flesh. Can grow up to 50 lbs. Impress your neighbors and grow a huge squash. Excellent choice for home gardens. United States Department of Agriculture, NSL 5237. A winter squash variety.

SQ113-10 - Kabocha Squash

81 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces high yields of 3 lb dark green globe shaped squash with pale green stripes. The orange-yellow flesh has a sweet and nutty flavor. Kabocha squash is an important vegetable in Japan and is very popular in the Oriental supermarkets on the West Coast. An excellent storage variety. Also know as Naguri Squash. Excellent choice for home gardens, market growers, and open field production. A winter squash variety.

SQ90-20 - Large Blue Hubbard Squash

120 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 20" long blue-gray hubbard squash. The orange-yellow flesh is very sweet. Perfect for making pies. Suitable for home garden and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ27-20 - Long Island Cheese Squash

105 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 10 lb squash resembling a wheel of cheese. The orange flesh is very sweet and used for making delicious pies. Stores well. Excellent choice for home gardens. A heirloom variety from New England. A winter squash variety.

ELECTRONIC CATALOG

SQ121-20 - Mashed Potato Squash

90 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Compact bush type plant produces high yields of 2 lb white acorn squash. This gourmet squash has extremely high quality white flesh. Very flavorful. Excellent choice for home gardens and specialty market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ70-20 - Neck Pumpkin Squash

120 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 24" to 30" long butternut type squash. It has very sweet orange flesh. Used for making pies and processing. Excellent choice for home gardens, market growers, and open field production. A winter squash variety.

SQ68-20 - New England Blue Hubbard Squash

110 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of extra large attractive blue-gray squash. This variety has flavorful deep yellow flesh which has very good texture. Stores well up to 4 months. Excellent choice for home gardens. A winter squash variety.

SQ73-20 - Puritan Butternut Squash

100 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 11" long by 5" butternut squash. The flesh and is very flavorful and sweet. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ111-20 - Queensland Blue Squash

120 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of large 8 lb blue squash. The squash is flattened and ribbed. Very flavorful. Stores well. Excellent choice for home gardens and specialty market growers. A heirloom variety. A winter squash variety.

SQ80-10 - Rumbo Squash

100 days. Cucurbita moschata. (F1) Plant produces good yields of 15 lb pumpkin shaped winter squash. Is it a pumpkin that tastes like a winter squash or is it a winter squash that looks like a pumpkin? The flattened ribbed squash looks somewhat like Cinderella pumpkin or an old-fashioned cheese pumpkin, but the flavor is that of a superior quality winter squash. The very thick dark orange-yellow flesh is even sweeter than acorn squash without the stringiness. Quality holds for a long time, allowing plenty of time to display the unique fruits prior to eating them. Yields are higher than most other winter squash. Excellent choice for home gardens and specialty market growers. A winter squash variety.

Note: Item is being discontinued by seed grower. Once the inventory is depleted, it won't be available in the future.

SQ8-10 - Small Wonder Squash

90 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces good yields of yellow-orange squash. This variety produces 2 lb size squash that has pale yellow flesh with excellent flavor and good stranding qualities. This Spaghetti squash produces a month earlier than other varieties. Stores well. Excellent choice for home gardens. A winter squash variety.

SQ39-10 - Sunshine Squash

2004 All-America Selections Winner!

98 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces good yields of 4 lb bright reddish-orange squash with thin tan stripes. It has a sweet nutty flesh that is completely smooth and stringless. A very attractive gourmet squash! Always a great seller at Farmer's Markets! Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ20-20 - Sweet Dumpling Squash

105 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of creamy squash with dark green stripes. This variety produces loads of ½ lb size ivory and dark green color skin squash. The flesh is golden and is as sweet as honey. Perfect stuffed with meat and baked like a bell pepper or prepared like squash. Very productive and keeps well. Always a great seller at Farmer's Markets! Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

SQ52-10 - Sweet Mama Squash

1979 All-America Selections Winner!

85 days. Cucurbita pepo. (F1) Plant produces good yields of 3 lb dark green squash. The yellow flesh is extremely sweet. Excellent storage variety, keeps for 4 months. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

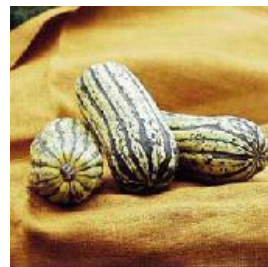

SQ37-20 - Sweet Meat Squash

95 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 20 lb blue green squash. The flesh is orange and is very sweet. Sweetness and flavor improves while in storage. Stores up to 6 months. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A variety from Oregon, USA. United States Department of Agriculture, NSL 22026. A winter squash variety.

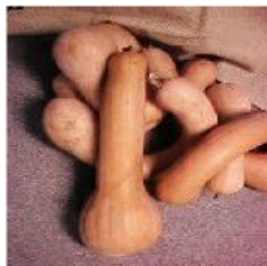

SQ84-20 - Sweet Potato Squash

100 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of large 8" long by 3" wide white squash with green stripes. This variety has very flavorful orange flesh similar to sweet potatoes. Perfect for making pies. Stores well. Excellent choice for home gardens. A winter squash variety.

SQ71-10 - Tahitian Butternut Squash

110 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of large butternut type squash with long neck. The squash has golden-orange flesh that gets sweeter during storage. It is delicious raw or baked. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A winter squash variety.

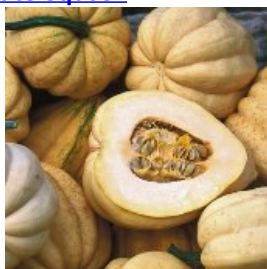

SQ118-10 - Tennessee Sweet Potato Squash

105 days. Cucurbita mixta. Open Pollinated. Plant produces excellent yields of 12" long creamy white pear shaped squash with very faint green stripes. Plant has huge vines. The flesh is thick and creamy white and is more delicious than a sweet potato. Great when fried in a skillet with onions, garlic and a little salt. Perfect for making pies and custards. Excellent keeper, stores well for 6 months. It was grown by Thomas Jefferson at Monticello, Virginia. A heirloom variety that was introduced in the 1780's from Jamaica via the slave trade. Excellent choice for home gardens. United States Department of Agriculture, NSL 5197. A winter squash variety.

SQ120-20 - Thelma Sanders Sweet Potato Squash

90 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces high yields of 8" long cream colored acorn shaped squash. It matures to a creamy tan color. The golden orange flesh is thick and delicious with a sweet potato and chestnut flavor. Perfect for making for sauces, curries, and pies. Keeps well for months, with the longest shelf life of any squash, and sweetens during storage. Excellent choice for home gardens. A heirloom variety from Adair County, Missouri. A winter squash variety. Certified Organic.

SQ105-10 - Triamble Squash

105 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of large triangular shaped blue skinned squash. It is very flavorful. Excellent choice for home gardens. A heirloom variety from Australia. A winter squash variety.

SQ91-20 - True Green Hubbard Squash

115 days. Cucurbita maxima. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 15" long dark bronze-green skinned squash. It has a very sweet orange-yellow thick flesh. Perfect for making pies. Keeps well into spring. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A heirloom variety dating back to 1790. A winter squash variety.

SQ18-20 - Vegetable Spaghetti Squash

85 days. Cucurbita pepo. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of cylindrical shaped Spaghetti squash. The creamy colored squash is filled with spaghetti like strands of buttery yellow flesh. Excellent when topped with spaghetti sauce and cheese. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. A variety from Japan. United States Department of Agriculture, PI 381323. A winter squash variety.

SQ22-20 - Waltham Butternut Squash

1970 All-America Selections Winner!

110 days. Cucurbita moschata. Open Pollinated. Plant produces good yields of 9" long tan butternut squash. The squash has bright orange flesh and is very sweet. Excellent choice for home gardens and market growers. United States Department of Agriculture, NSL 73985. A winter squash variety.

