

Mustard

HB52-250 - Black Mustard

Brassica sinapis nigra. Annual. Open Pollinated. The plant produces good yields of black mustard seeds. The seeds are ground and mixed with vinegar to make peppery brown mustard. Used to flavor meats and as a spice pickling. Black Mustard is mentioned in the Bible. A variety from the Medeterrian region.

